

FLORIDIANS DUMP TREASURE TO SAVE REAL ESTATE

WEST PALM BEACH, FL. (July 23, 2010) – Manor Auction Company of Tallahassee presents their “2-Day SUMMER SHOW & AUCTION” at the Palm Beach County Convention Center on July 24th – 25th with a lot previewing on July 23rd from 3pm – 6pm of its Fine Art, Jewelry, & Collectibles and Asian Decorative Arts & Antiques.

Nearly 900 lots of items are being sold regardless of the price to the highest bidder. Manor Auctions gathers these items from their 5 Florida locations and liquidates on behalf of consignors; most of whom have been affected tremendously by factory closings in Florida small towns.

Saturday’s Fine Art, Jewelry, & Collectibles Auction begins at 11am with over 400 lots including a rare liquidation of 15 Highwayman paintings, 10 Vintage Les Paul Guitars, Rembrandt art, and many more timeless American history and artifacts.

Asian Decorative Arts & Antiques The Eastern World Treasures collection of more than 1000 pieces of Ivory carvings, more than 200 Cloisonné vases, Jade statues, Figural screens and more.

With more in store, Sunday at noon, the specialty Asian Decorative Arts & Antiques Auction featuring over 500 lots of Asian art, 1000 pieces of ivory carvings, 200 cloisonné vases, jade statues, jewelry figural screens and more will commence the Eastern World Treasures collection

“During challenging economic times, families in small Florida communities need access to major markets to liquidate assets and survive. Manor Auctions is pleased to be the conduit to Palm Beach which is a more lucrative market,” explains company Auctioneer Malcolm Mason.

Additional items being auctioned include; Rolexes, 1 to 3 carat diamonds, Slot Machines, Daum , Galle, Steuben, Tiffany, Civil War Collection, Rare coins, Fine Silverware, Swords, Antique Firearms, and even an 18th century Concubine Carriage.

Before auction time, enjoy a Public Lot Viewing from 9:00am to opening on auction days. The auctions are free to attend and include complimentary parking, catalogs, and refreshments for all attendees. For more information, please contact Paul Barattini (850) 567-4653 or visit www.ManorAuctions.com.
