LEGENDARY REGGAE ARTIST BERES HAMMOND TO PERFORM SUNDAY, SEPT. 6 AT THE PALM BEACH COUNTY CONVENTION CENTER

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (August 28, 2009) — Share a “Moment in Time” with internationally acclaimed reggae artist Beres Hammond at his North American “Curtain Closer” Sunday, Sept. 6 at the Palm Beach County Convention Center. Presented by Nufawi Entertainment, the concert will also feature the music of the Harmony House Family and the award-winning DJ Inferno.

One of the most underappreciated reggae artists of his time, Beres Hammond was something of a throwback during his '90s heyday: a soulful crooner indebted to classic rocksteady and American R&B, one who preferred live instrumentation and wrote much of his own material. Hammond specialized in romantic lovers rock, but he also found time to delve into light dancehall, conscious roots reggae, hip-hop fusion and straight-up contemporary R&B. His sophisticated musical taste is well-suited to translate easily across cultural divides, yet the international reggae world has remained his most loyal fan base.

Tickets purchased in advance online at www.pbconventioncenter.com are $65 for VIP seating and $45 for general admission. Tickets purchased at the box office on the day of the show will be $75 for VIP seating and $55 for general admission. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and the concert begins at 7:30 p.m.

The official Beres Hammond after party will be held at the Caribbean Community Center at 2845 Military Trail in West Palm Beach.
